Mrs. Taylor, sister of Mrs. Crane, is to have a house and garage built on her Santa Lucia Avenue lots. Percy Parkes is the contractor.

An automobile you will be proud to own—the Briscoe C. O. Goold, Carmel Garage, local dealer.

Mrs. J. V. Christy and children are here from San Jose for a week. The little boy recently suffered a broken wrist.

Call on L. S. Slevin for Notary work.

School attendance here has been much below normal during the past two weeks. Parents should be careful not to keep children out unless it is absolutely necessary, as the school revenue depends upon attendance.

Miss Ruth Updegraff, daughter of a prominent U. S. naval officer, was a week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Woolley.

P. W. McDonald and family will move into their San Carlos Avenue home on March 1. The dairy depot will be located on Fifth Avenue, close to the residence, about April 1.

Movies here two times a week begin on Tuesday, April 20, with a special show—"Virtuous Men"—the prices for which will be 25c and 15c. Regular prices will prevail thereafter.

Mrs. R. B. Thudichum has as guest Mrs. Ambrose Madison Willis, a San Francisco literary woman.

Fresno is one of the richest and fastest-growing cities in California, says J. A. Webster, now here. He was for many years a prominent business man in the Raisin City.

Mrs. Arthur A. Wilson, who has been a sojourner here several times, was down from Piedmont last week. She will be here with her children for two weeks next month.

Dr. A. W. Woolley, formerly of the British Navy, has been spending a few days here. He is delighted with Carmel.

If you read it in the Pine Cone you may safely repeat it.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Quite a number of Carmel young folks motored down to the Highlands last Saturday night to trip the light fantastic.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Corson and children, after an absence of eight months. They have taken the Waterbury house, and the little girl has entered school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray DeYoe and son were week end visitors, and they brought Mrs. May home from the city.

Boosts and Knocks

By Observer

I hear we are to elect a sanitary assessor next month. 'Twould be too bad if we elected one who was not sanitary.

"Deceased Chinese Merchant Buried."—Headline in Salinas Index. Say Jo, do they bury them alive over there sometimes?

The other day a fellow asked me what Bob Leidig waa going to do. I told him I heard he was going on the road. He asked, "What road?"

If there's one person in this town who gets a kick out of the movies that person is Sam Powers. He and his good wife never miss a local show. Sam gets particularly violent when the vamps are getting the best of it.

Here's a knock and a boost all in one sentence from a recent issue of the Nation: "Mr. Wilson, as we all know, collapsed under duress and yielded to the forces of evil at Paris, but Mr. Hoover never surrendered."

"What did you do yesterday?" asked one author of another on Ocean Avenue a few days ago. "I played golf," replied the one addressed. "The last refuge of mediocrity," said the other. Christian spirit, what.

A Chicago man, writing to a friend here, says: "Somehow that name (Carmel-by-the-Sea) has got my goat. It tells me of long winding roads, magnificent, friendly and benign mountain cliffs, trees waving about, and shrubbery of the kind one would love to hide in."

Much of the Ocean Avenue traffic has been diverted to Eighth Avenue since the latter thoroughfare has been improved. If Ocean Avenue is not improved soon, I would not be surprised if property owners on Eighth Avenue built several stores. I've seen it happen in other towns.

The bulk of all jury service for those citizens who do not take interest enough in local, state and national affairs to register and vote, is the proposal that comes from National Committeeman Raymond Benjamin. I heartily concur in this plan to make civic slackers do their duty.

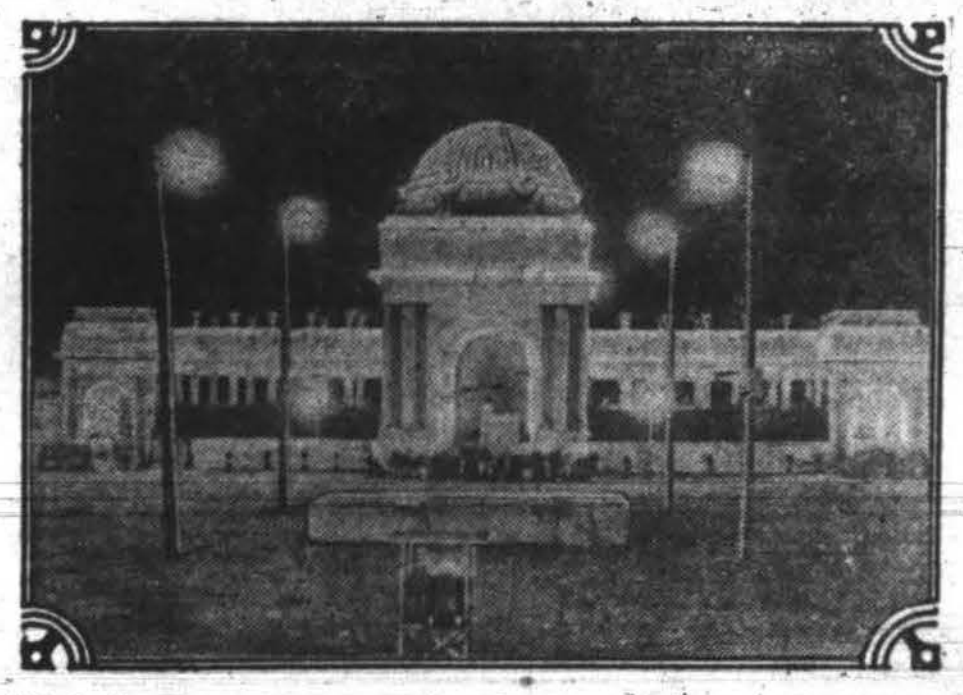
Wednesday—"When Bearcat Went Dry." This is a Knockout.

Note: All pictures shown at Star Theatre day following.

MANILA CARNIVAL BIG ATTRACTION OF FAR EAST



This is the season of the year when the Philippines become the playground for the entire orient. It is carnival season in Manila.

In 1908 the first Philippine carnival was held on historic Wallace Field in Manila in February, when the climate of the islands is at its best, and each succeeding year there has been a larger and more elaborate celebration. The 1920, or Victory Carnival, will be the greatest event of its sort ever held anywhere in the Far East.

There are commercial and government exhibits in connection with the carnival, and on no other occasion is it possible to gain at once such a comprehensive idea of the production and development of resources of the archipelago as that which is offered the visitor at the carnival city.

In the evenings the carnival becomes the center of Philippine and oriental social activity. A huge open air auditorium serves for the elaborate nightly balls, and on its mammoth floor thousands of couples swing together to the strains of music furnished by the famous Constabulary and other military bands. Probably at no other place in the world will one see an equally impressive cosmopolitan spectacle.

The Manila visitor who can plan his trip to arrive at the Pearl of the Orient for carnival time may well deem himself fortunate.

Stevenson and Lang.

Robert Louis Stevenson was "ordered South," and, as we know, he left it on record that he never had been quite happy anywhere except at Hyeres. But that accomplished man of letters, Andrew Lang, was of another mind. He went to the Riviera, and was bored by it. He particularly detested being introduced to strangers and having afternoon tea in hotels, so when the time came for his departure to his last holiday he chose Banchory, on Deeside. "After all," said he, "there is nothing better than Scotland." So he died in the land he loved.

Lincoln and Economy.

As an advocate of thrift, Abraham Lincoln was far less prolific than another great American, Benjamin Franklin. Lincoln published no "Poor Richard's Almanac." If he had, doubtless his injunctions to thrift would have been fully as trenchant and pointed as were those of Franklin. For Lincoln was forced to thrift and consequently realized the value of it.

Summarized, his advice on this subject was: "Teach economy; that is one of the first and highest virtues. It begins with saving money."

"Before and After" in the Near East

"BEFORE." "AFTER."

From misery to comfort and self-respect in five days' time, simply through the magic of an American ten dollar bill, is a transformation that is being wrought daily in Western Asia by the Near East Relief of 1 Madison Avenue, New York City. The group of five Armenian children shown in two pictures here have reason to bless the American donor of that ten dollar bill. With this money, the expert workers of Near East Relief in Armenia were able to rid the poor children of their loathesome rags and to clothe them with new garments of alaja cloth, woven in a Near East Relief Industrial plant and sewed into garments by the mother of the children. The mother was also paid a small fee for her services in making the garments.

This was a lucky family. There are thousands of others not so lucky in the Near East, simply because of a lack of other ten dollar bills. Near East Relief is asking the American people to contribute funds to save the starving in the Bible lands. It is estimated that over 1,250,000 adults are in desperate need, and 250,000 children are orphans and must be cared for. For the sum of $180 a year Near East Relief can not only feed and clothe and shelter an orphan child, but can also give a course in education towards ultimate self-support and independence. Many of these orphans are being "adopted" by Americans, who are providing funds for the support of one or more over a given period.

News Items

Among the week-end visitors here were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Hooper. They have recently purchased a beautiful residence on Green Street, in San Francisco, and will occupy it on April 1.

Ann Dare, who was to have come here next week for several months, will not get here until April 1, owing to press of work for the dramatic section of the Western Arts Association.

Frederick Preston Search, Carmel's eminent musician-composer, will be home next month. He has had a very successful season in Honolulu.

The Russells were here for a day or two last week. They will return next month, probably to remain through the summer.

Philemon D. Croney, prominent educator of Santa Clara county, is here with his family, for a fortnight's stay.

The Carmel Bird Club meets tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Kip, at Grey Gables, Lincoln St. at Seventh Ave. A large attendance of members and their friends is desired.

Miss W. S. "Billie" Morrow was in town over Sunday. She has left for her former home town in South Carolina, where she will take charge of the hospital and welfare work in several cotton mills.

Fred M. Wermuth, who for years conducted a stage line here, is preparing to move to Petaluma—according to the Cypress—where he will engage in chicken raising.

Latest Records, all makes, at Palace Drug Co., Monterey. Pianos for rent. adv

The will of the late Frank Pixley, disposing of an estate estimated to exceed $10,000 in value, has been filed for probate, and the widow, Isabel McRoy Pixley, is named as the sole devisee.

Dr. Geo. J. McChesney motored down here from San Francisco on Washington's Birthday with his wife, Miss Ella Hutton and Miss Ida Hutton.
